

In brief:

labour costs in Poland are only €3.29 per hour

JP Director`s Report

Autor: Heinz Jäger, JP Mergers & Finance AG

Issue 7/05 - 18.10.2005

According to research by the well-known German economist Hans-Werner Sinn, the average hourly labour costs in manufacturing industry in 2004 were just €3.29 in Poland. In contrast, labour costs in Germany stood at € 27.60, by far the highest figure in western and central Europe.